Authors: Mahadzirah Mohamad, Morliyati Mohammad, Ibrahim Mamat

Dear Prof. Mohamad,

On behalf of the IAFOR local organizing committee and the ACSS 2014 conference chairs, Professor Stuart Picken, Dr Andrea Molle and Dr Alex Petrisor, I am pleased to write that your proposal "Modelling Positive Development, Life Satisfaction and Problem Behaviour Among Youths in Malaysia", having met the accepted international academic standards of blind peer review, has been accepted for oral presentation at ACSS 2014.

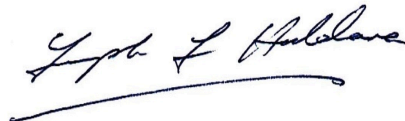

The Conference will be held in Osaka, Japan, at The Rihga Royal Hotel, from the evening of Thursday, June 12 through Sunday, June 15, 2014. The keynote speaker and plenary session will be on Friday morning and parallel panel sessions begin Friday afternoon and run for the duration of the conference. Most panels run for 90 minutes, with generally three presenters per panel, so each presenter has 30 minutes total for presentation and Q&A. For more detailed information about the conference, and accommodation, please visit the conference website.

If you cannot attend for any reason, please notify the conference administration team at acss@iafor.org, remembering to quote your submission reference number. If there is a day that you are unable to present, please contact the administration team at time of registration. Not everyone can be accommodated with preferential dates and time, so presenters should limit any request of this nature to unavoidable situations.

A PDF of the full Conference Programme will be uploaded on the ACSS 2014 website by May 23, 2014. Please check the Programme at that time to make sure all information pertaining to you is included and correct.

Thank you for participating in The Fifth Asian Conference on the Social Sciences 2014. All of us affiliated with the organization aim to make this conference a success.

Yours Sincerely,

Joseph Haldane, PhD (London)
Executive Director, IAFOR
